RUSS AND POLES TO CONTINUE THEIR WARFARE.

RIGA ADVISES PESSIMISTIC

Cessation of Hostilities Not Likely Until Peace Terms Have Been Agreed Upon.

Riga.-After a two-hour conference between M. Dombski, head of the Polish peace mission, and Adolph Joffe, chief of the Russian soviet delegation, the opinion was expressed to the Associated Press by M. Ladoz, secretary of the Polish mission, that there is little chance of a cessation of the Russo-Polish fighting until preliminary peace terms are agreed upon.

The favorable military situation of the Poles at present and the arrival of the Polish delegates, coupled with the deliberations, have created the impression that the conference may be long drawn out. Until the Poles readily be defended, it is considered not confined to the Pacific coast, probable that Poland will not agree to a cessation of hostilities.
